This policy may be updated from time to time.

INFORMATION COLLECTED

AA18 collects and uses various personal information from donors that includes: amount donated, address, telephone number, donor comments and e-mail address. Tax laws in the United States require AA18 to keep contact information and contribution level of donors on file.

AA18 will never publish, sell, trade, rent or share names (unless released for publication), e-mail or mail addresses, or telephone numbers of our donors. The Foundation will use contact information (e-mail, telephone number and address) of donors for these purposes only:

Distribute receipts for donations

Thank donors for their donation

Inform donors about upcoming fundraising and other activities of AA18

Internal analysis and record keeping

Reporting to relevant U.S. and State agencies (these reports are not for public inspection)

Contact donors about changes to this policy

Recognize donors and contribution amounts in annual reports and other similar materials

We assume all donations are publicly announced unless the donor explicitly indicates otherwise. Comments given in donor forms are published in public lists and may be used in promotional materials while comments sent to us via email, fax or telephone are kept strictly confidential. Properly anonymized donor information can be used for promotional and fundraising activities.

We may recognize donor names and contribution amounts in annual reports and other similar materials unless the donor explicitly chooses the "anonymous" field when donating online or requests anonymity for direct donations via check or similar payment.
